Arthur Johnstone, Editor and Prop'r.

FRIDAY.....APRIL 23, 1886.

THE recommendations of the Committee of six citizens appointed by the Chief Justice of the Kingdom in regard to the widening and extension of the streets throughout the burnt district will doubtless receive the hearty endorsement of both property owners and citizens generally. The report of the Committee is published in another column, and the benefits arising from such a plan, or a similar one, will be manifest to all upon perusal. It is to be hoped that the spirit of the report will be carried out as soon as possible, so that the rebuilding of the burnt district can go forward as speedily as labor and material can be procured. The fire limit should now be extended over the district, or even beyond, and the authorities should be careful that the widening and extension of the streets is not used as an excuse for putting up wooden buildings.

The fire of Sunday last has removed that old historic landmark, the Bethel Church, around which so many recollections of fifty-two years are twined, calling forth many expressions of regret and sympathy with its pastor and congregation in their loss. This was evidenced on Monday by the Lyceum and Y. M. C. A. Hall being tendered for the use of the congregation until they could erect a new place of worship, and at their Wednesday evening meeting a similar offer was sent in from the Fort-street Church to share their edifice.

The need of a new church building has been forcing itself gradually upon the congregation and general public the past few years, and initiatory measures had already been entered upon which would, perhaps, have taken many months to consummate. But in an unlooked for manner the old building is wiped out of existence, and pastor and people are cast adrift with their needs more pressing than ever.
To all it seems imperative to build anew and as soon as possible, but while deciding on a location more suitable, and awaiting for sufficient means, the congregation will occupy the Lyceum, on Nuuanu Avenue.

At two recent meetings of the Trustees it was deemed advisable to open subscription lists at once for a new church. A committee was appointed from their number to canvass among the members, and the pastor, Rev. E. C.
Oggel, was authorized to circulate a list throughout the community. Thus, for the first time in the history of the Bethel Church, we believe, does it appeal to the community for a building fund, the late edifice having been sent out from the Eastern States. There are many friends of the old Bethel who are not its members scattered throughout the Islands and abroad in foreign lands. It is hoped these friends will aid the effort of a feeble band to erect a new home. The pastor, at the recent meeting referred to, represented the matter very hopefully and said that two unsolicited offers of $500 each have been handed him for this object.

It is, of course, early for suggestions, but in this connection we may be pardoned if we state here that memorial windows, or tablets, might appropriately take a prominent place in the proposed church, to the memories of the late Dr. Damon, for so many years its pastor, and Mrs. Lowell Smith who came out in the same vessel with the first Bethel Church, and was an active and inspiring member to the time of her death.

London Papers.

The Post's London special says: A sensation has been caused by the sudden right-about face of the daily News, the ministerial organ and the only London journal which hitherto supported Gladstone's home rule scheme.

CONDENSED FOREIGN NEWS.

A large and disastrous fire has occurred at Key West, Florida.—The anti-Chinese memorial to Congress from the Pacific Coast, is reported to have been lost "in the mass of insignificant documents that are presented to Congress every day."—Two joint resolutions have been introduced into Congress; one provides that Chinese immigration be checked by the modification of the treaties and the other provides for an appropriation of over $147,000 to pay Chinamen who were damaged by the Rock Springs outrages.

minus of the Panama canal.—The Hay-tien revolutionists are reported to be preparing for a larger revolution than ever in Hayti.—Another railway is projected along the grand canal in China.

The Treaty.

DISCUSSING the Hawaiian treaty at the inception of the pending attack upon it, we said that England stood ready to take the commerce of those islands the moment we dropped it.
The fight upon the treaty went on. It was understood that Mr. Morrison, Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, favored abrogation, and the prospect of the fall of the treaty appeared stronger than during any previous assault. Concurrently appeared England's activity in the matter.
A commissioner from the Dominion was delegated to the Hawaiian Government, in effect to arrange a protocol for a treaty to transfer the rich commerce now plying to this port to the Pacific terminus of the Canadian Pacific Railway. The commissioner has returned and reported, and in his report one reads the waiting attitude of England in the matter. National influence threats upon the treaty. Ours has by that means become paramount, but with the fall of the treaty it falls never to regain its footing. But, aside from this, which is a political consideration which we will consider further on, in Hawaii American commercial enterprise has made the most significant progress that its history can show, as a matter of exterior interest.—S. F. Alta.

The War of Rates.

NEW YORK, April 13.—The Tribune says: There has been no settlement of the differences between the transcontinental lines although negotiations have not been abandoned. The railroad companies probably would have no difficulty in completing an agreement, but the purpose of the present negotiations is to arrange terms with the Pacific Mail Steamship Company. The railroads appear willing to pay a reduced subsidy, but the steamship company insists that it will accept not less than $100,000 a month, with the provision that the contract cannot be terminated in less than six months' notice. It is understood that the railroads have been offered $70,000 a month. C. P. Huntington said, in reply to an inquiry: "There is no settlement in sight. I have proposed a sort of sliding scale of the Pacific Mail subsidy, to be varied according to the conditions of business. It begins at $70,000 a month, and under no circumstances is it to exceed $85,000 in premium payments. We would never consent to raise the amount to $100, 000, for the tendency is more toward lower rates than higher rates." A prominent Director of the steamship company said: "I am sure that there are not over two members of the board who would vote to accept $70,000 a month, and it is doubtful if a majority could be obtained in favor of the former subsidy."

A Bloody Affray.

EL PASO (Tex.), April 12.—A bloody tragedy occurred last night at a Mexican residence on San Francisco street.
Lucero Gutierrez, the head of the house, suspected his wife of infidelity, and in a moment of madness was maltreating her and at the same time displaying a dirk and threatening her life. Francisco Ulmedo witnessed the scene, but fear prevented him from doing anything. The screams of the wife finally attracted Rominez, another Mexican, who lived near by, and he rushed into the apartment and endeavored to check Gutierrez. He caught the latter by the throat and received a dangerous stab. Ulmedo by this time interfered and was stabbed in the breast by the enraged husband and died in a few moments. Gutierrez colly looked at his victims, wiped his dirk and then walked away. He has not yet been captured. His wife was also badly wounded.

The Debate on Gladstone's Irish Home-Rule Plan.

LONDON, April 12.—The House of Commons was again densely crowded this evening, as it was announced that Lord Randolph Churchill would attack Gladstone's Home-Rule bill. Lord Churchill made a long speech, in which he inveighed bitterly against the policy outlined by Gladstone, and wound up by saying that the effect of the bill would be to free Ireland from the sovereignty of the Queen. He regretted that it had not been deemed consistent with the customs of the House to take a division on Gladstone's motion for leave to introduce the bill, but the day of decision would speedily arrive, when the House would vote against proposals which were desperate, unconstitutional and misleading.

Attorney General Russell replied to Lord Randolph Churchill, and taunted the latter with infusing into his speech prejudice and passion. The debate will close to-morrow.
